Information We Collect

The MI Tri-Share website does not store or capture any personal information when someone visits it. The system will log your IP address along with other information provided by your browser. This may include the name and version of the browser you are using, your operating system, and any website address that referred you to the MI Tri-Share website. We and our partners (such as regional facilitator hubs and analysis firms) use tracking technology, such as Google Analytics, on our website to improve your experience and track website performance.

You can opt out of Google Analytics by using Google's opt-out tool.

Any information that is collected by Heart of West Michigan United Way from this website will only be used for monitoring purposes unless you have given consent for your information to be used - e.g. Providing us with your information on the MI Tri-Share application form so that we can determine your eligibility for the program.

Cookies

When you visit the MI Tri-Share website pages, a small text file called a cookie, is downloaded onto your computer. This is called a session cookie. This will only remain on your computer until you close your browser. This cookie is not used to identify you personally in any way. We will use this type of cookie to collect aggregated website statistics that allow us to understand how visitors use the site. All of the information collected will be anonymous and only used to help us improve the website and report to funders on usage.

A persistent cookie will be downloaded when you first visit the site. These remain in your browser's cookie store between sessions. This type of cookie will allow us to identify repeat visitors to the site. Persistent cookies are also used to allow registered users to use the site without logging in on every visit.

You may opt to view the site without cookies by adjusting your browser's settings or opting out of tracking tools like Google Analytics. If you disable cookies some functions of the site may no longer work correctly.

Embedded Content

Our site may include content from other websites, such as videos or articles. These third-party websites may use cookies or other tracking technologies to collect data about your interactions.

Your Rights

You can request access to or deletion of any personal information we have collected, in compliance with applicable laws.
